

Prof Alberto FORNASARI

Aggregate Professor in Experimental Pedagogy in the Department of Educational Sciences, Psychology, Communication, University of Bari "Aldo Moro". Rector's delegate, Expert in Communication, Multicultural and Intercultural Field, Phd in "Training Dynamics and Education to the Politic", UNIBA. Coordinator of the intercultural education laboratory- University of Bari. Member of Continuing Education Centre UNIBA. Professor of Intercultural Pedagogy in Apulian Theological Faculty, former professor in intercultural pedagogy for 6 years in UNIBA.

Coordinator of the scientific group "Religions in dialogue" (UNIBA) in cooperation with the Prefettura of Bari and with the Scholastic Office of the Region Puglia. Scientific Head of University of Bari about INSO project (Innovation in society: training paths and human capital enhancement in Sudan), of Erasmus Plus project IF4TM (Institutional framework for development of the third mission of universities in Serbia), Scientific Head of Apulian regional project "the name's of God". Intercultural consultant of "Teca del Mediterraneo" –Library and Center for research of the Board of Region Puglia. Large Experience in the field of Intercultural training and in the setting of projects for international cooperation. Speaker for several national and international conferences. Author of various scientific publications, Director of many university Master post degree, trainer in a courses for teachers in a schools with a strong immigration process. Member of the University Task Force for the Study of International Migration; board member of Intercultura Onlus and national responsible for intercultural training of ilntercultura volunteers. Member of Reprise Expert for italian Minister of University and Research (evaluation of national university projects), member of Italian Society of Pedagogy, member of UNIBA guarantee committee for equal opportunities.