

Roxana G. Reichman, PhD (Gordon College of Education, University of Haifa, Israel)

Expert in Comparative Education and Education, Administration, Organization and Leadership (PhD from State University of New York at Buffalo, 1996). Has published in the fields of higher education, educational reforms, organizational change, multiculturalism and teacher education for the gifted and talented. During the last two decades, has worked for ten years in the Department of Educational Management at Haifa University and simultaneously for 20 years at Gordon Academic College, teaching undergraduate and graduate students and advising MEd students for their thesis. Has held several administrative positions at GACE programs in teacher education, including Academic Head, Head of the MEd program in Learning, Instruction and Mentoring, coordinator of the two-year Teacher education program for gifted, Erasmus institutional coordinator of faculty exchange as well as students and administrative staff exchange. Has been vice coordinator of Tempus program DOIT, and as expert in curriculum development, has led the curriculum development and assessment team of this program. Has also been a member of the Tempus program LLAF and the Erasmus program DARE. In CURE, is the leader of the on line Global challenge in the 21st century in promoting active citizenship and civic education.